DRAGON

we're off and running!

There are always moments of seriousness in the average day of a student at J.H.S., but time is always made for fun and games. It is not unusual to see Denny Shields, Jack Quick, and Rod Phipps having a three-cornered fight as they make their way down the third floor hall. Nor is it unusual to see Mr. Pitz roaming the halls looking for his "lost" students.

If you were to walk into student center, you would see many games being played--most of these a little quieter than the original ones the students make up. Many people enjoy having ping pong tournaments, some which last for weeks. Cards are also a favorite game to play. Sometimes you can see ten students huddled around a table, and you know they are playing cards.

Students are not the only ones who play games at J.H.S., the teachers are often caught in the act too. Mr. Pitz and Mr. Lancaster enjoy playing chess whenever they have a spare moment. They can often be found in the middle of a circle of students, staring intently at the chess board. Mr. Mitts can often be found in the gym playing basketball with one of his team members. Tennis is Mrs. Anson's game. And Mr. Gross likes to be on a golf course as often as possible.

No Matter how depressed you are you can always find something to laugh at to brighten up your day. Of course there is a lot of studying done, but you can also see a lot of games people play at J.H.S.

you're never too old to

class of '73

This year the student body chose Senior Deb Cameron Homecoming Queen with Janet Finley and Laura Hunsicker as princesses. Their escorts were Tom Evans, Rod Phipps and Bob Allender.

Out of the twenty members in Honor Society nine of them were Seniors. These people were Carole Blair, Deb Cameron, Ericka Huber, Laura Hunsicker, Patty McIntyre, Dave Munck, Dianne Otto, Mark Steinberg and Janet Finley.

The Seniors will be leaving many memories behind at J.H.S., but they are looking forward to the future which will surely be a successful one for all of them.

class of '74

This year the junior class officers were: President Ron Clarkson, Vice-president Kelly Rohlfs, Secretary John Trier, and Treasurer Blake Thalacker. The class was represented in student council by Peter Gerstenberger and Lorrie Ward and in J.C.I.C. by Randa Duvick.

For the second consecutive year, the junior class is able to say that they won the pep stick more times than any other class. Maybe this shows that the class has a lot of spirit, or maybe it's just that the juniors have big mouths; but whatever the reason, the juniors feel that it is quite an accomplishment.

freshmen lead in magazine sales

The most outstanding accomplishment of the Freshmen class this year was the fact that they brought in more money with magazine sales than any other previous class. The leading salesman was Jim Herrick.

President Rick Crowl led the class with assistance of Vice President Brad Thalacker, Secretary Jim Haug and Treasurer Kim DeFrance. It is not easy to adjust from Junior High to High School but this young class seemed to handle it without much difficulty.

queen deb— and her court

Homecoming started out this year with much secretive excitement as each class picked who they wanted to represent their class as attendant and escort. The excitement finally reached a peak as the three senior candidates anxiously waited to see who would be this year's homecoming queen. Everybody was pleased when the surprised and happy Deb Cameron was crowned queen.

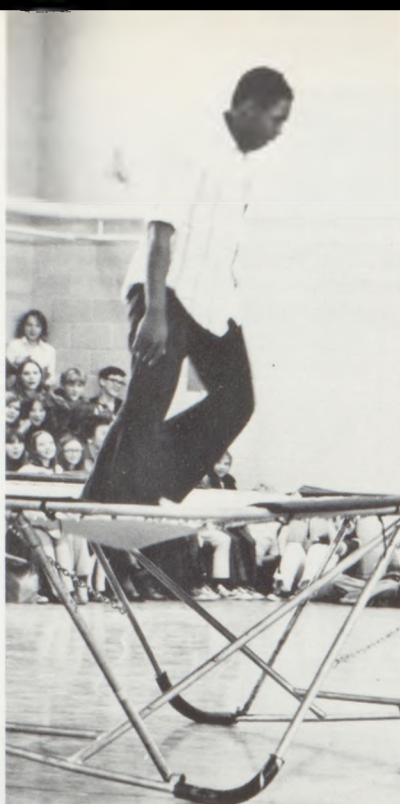

Other homecoming activities this year included the homecoming parade, coronation, powder-puff football game, bonfire, the evening pep assembly, and finally the big football game.

One of the more intellectual things Deb Cameron does with her time is to learn how to snap her fingers!

Christmas 1972 started with an all-class food drive. The food received was given to a needy family. Quite a bit of food was gathered.

Talent abounded December 22. The Student Council sponsored a talent show. The first act got things jumping. Jim Gamble showed his talent on the trampoline. Jim Allender performed on the drums, then Santa Claus sent some elves for a warning. The number one act consisted of Ron Clarkson and Bob Allender; playing trumpet, clarinet and piano. "Mary Had a Little Lamb" and "Chopsticks" received great applause. The whole show was topped off by John Trier and his elephant jokes.

1973 foreign exchange students

This year JHS had two foreign exchange students--Juan Capelli and Moema Silve.

Juan, pictured above and below right, is from Sante Fe, Argentina. At home, Juan attended the "Commercial School" where he is in his third year. He played rugby and belonged to the lawn tennis club in Argentina. Here at J. H. S. he is a member of the track team. Juan is living with the Beeson family during his stay in the United States. Juan has made many friends at Johnston, and we will all remember him after he has returned to his home in Argentina.

Our other exchange student Moema Silve, is from Goiania, Brazil and is a senior. One of the more interesting things she commented on was the fact that here she can choose the subjects she wants to take and at her school in Brazil she cannot.

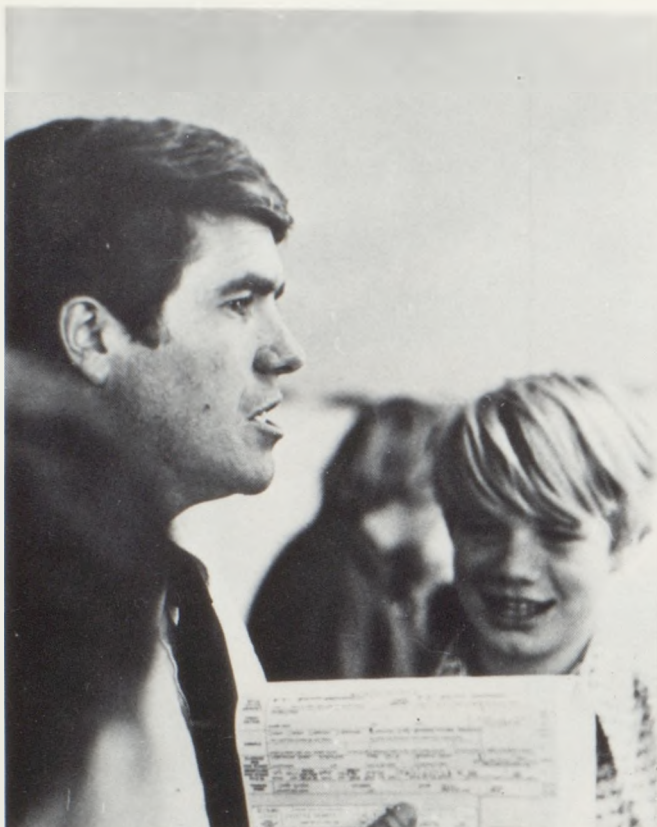

At her home in Brazil, Moema's school day lasts from 7:00 A.M. to 11:30 A.M. She had her choice of going morning, afternoon, or night. Moema is living with the Fandrei's while she is here, and says she has enjoyed her stay very much.

second state victory for cross county

The 1972-1973 Cross Country team ran for its second straight State Championship in the two mile this year. Led by the varsity members--Steve Wikner, John Trier, Ron Gomis, Darrell Cox, and graduating Senior Mark Steinberg --the team found only two defeats at the hands of Hoover and Tech this year.

Some other accomplishments of the team were the two new school records set by John Trier in the mile and two mile, the hosting by Mark Steinberg of our first AAU meet at Camp Dodge, and our first home meet with Pella Christain at Camp Dodge.

Work, dedication, and perseverance led by Senior Mark Steinberg led to a great year. With four varsity runners back next year along with three other strong members --Brad Thalacker, Todd Steinberg and Steve Wikner--Mr. Witts and the Johnston Cross Country Team look forward to another very successful year.

Johnston didn't quite meet up to the standards it set for itself last year, but you can't expect to be conference champions every year. The Dragons fought hard and scored at least one touchdown in every game. All the games were exciting, but perhaps the most thrilling was the homecoming game with Ballard where the Dragons went into overtime. Another unusual thing about the season was the fact that the Dragons won the first and last games. Johnston finished with a 2-7 record.

We would like to thank the following people for helping us during the football season: Dave Goss, Harry Bebensee, Kenny Stifel, Terry Bowen, Don Running, Dr. Clay, Dick Dunn, Don Otto, Mike Freking and Fred Sheeks.

This year's Basketball team had a fantastic season which was climaxed by the STATE TOURNAMENT. Coach Ron Mitts said that the key to their success was their unselfish attitude, their desire to play defense and their tremendous ability to penetrate on offense. In summary, it was the most outstanding example of team work by any team that Mr. Mitts has seen.

Mr. Mitts had something to say about each of his starters. Jack Quick is the emotional leader and was the best all around player Mr. Mitts has ever coached and one of the finest he has ever seen. Dennis Shields was the "take charge" leader. He was also the leading rebounder. Rod Phipps demonstrated his leadership through tremendous hustle. Jeff Evans had a great desire to play and excelled in defense. Ron Clarkson, the only starting junior, was the ingredient that made the team fit together.

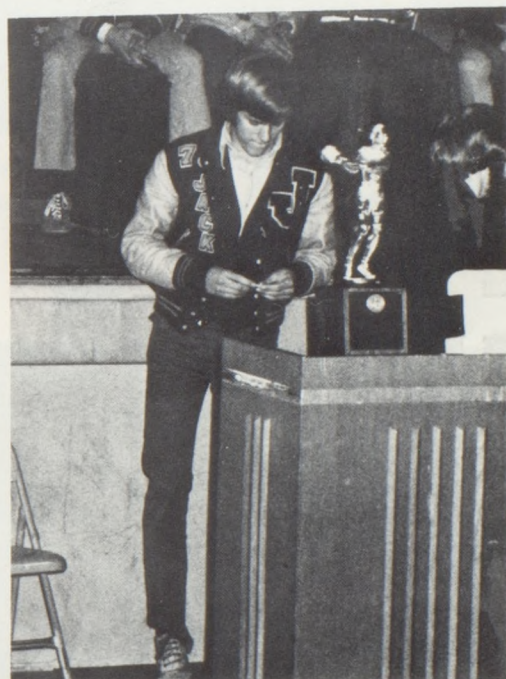

After losing two games, the team lost their first two goals for the year. These goals they set for themselves at the beginning of the year were: 1. To go undefeated 2. To be conference champs 3. To go to STATE. Through their hard practices and tough games they finally reached the third goal.

When asked, Mr. Mitts said that he was extremely proud of his team not only on the basketball court, but in every area.

In a season of successful tournament competition, JHS finished second in two major one tournaments, one at Carlisle and one at Greenfield.

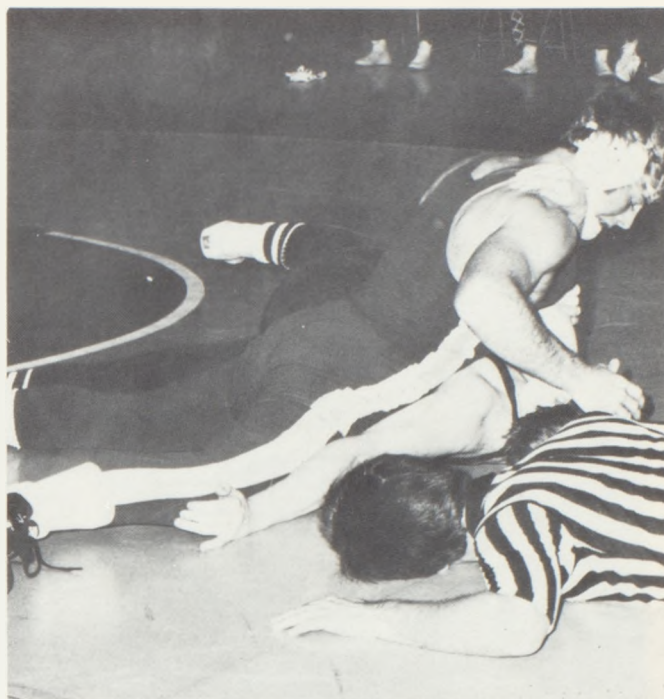

After finishing fourth in the conference tournament, wrestlers went on to capture third place in the sectionals.

From districts, Dave Fox and Tim Busby advanced to the state meet, where each was defeated in the first round of competition.

In dual meet competition the team scored four wins and seven losses against a group of tough contenders.

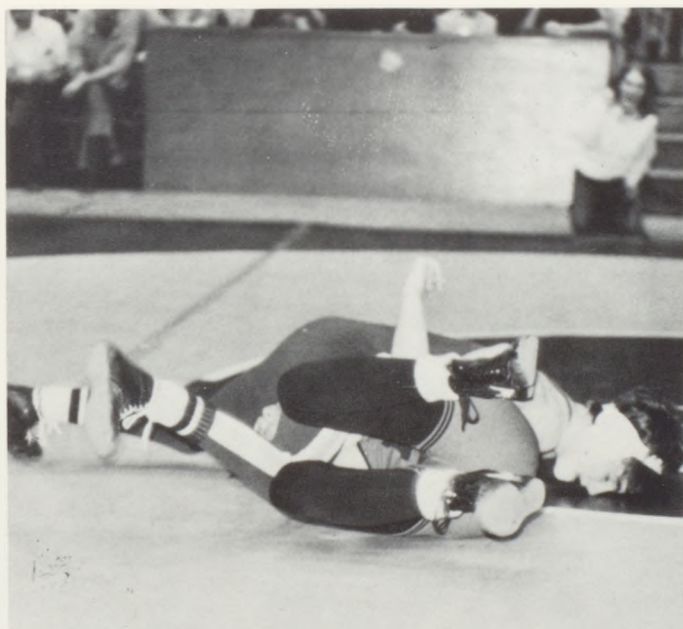

With a group of lettermen returning for 73-74, Coach Frank Baltzley looks forward to an even better season next year.

As a pilot program to determine the amount of interest the girls at Johnston had in softball, this sport was offered for the first time last fall. Over twenty girls signed up and had practice at least twice a week with Mr. Pitz volunteering his services as coach. In competition, Johnston is 1 and 1 and shows great promise for next year.

national honor society

The National Honor Society members are chosen by a faculty committee on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership and service.

Provisional members are chosen on the basis of the first three semesters in school. Qualifications are reviewed each semester and they must maintain the high standard of the society throughout their high school course. As juniors, they become full members. Others who qualify during their junior or senior year are admitted.

Senior members are: Carole Blair, Jane Boley, Debbie Cameron, Janet Finley, Linda Herrick, Erika Huber, Laura Hunsicker, Dorothy Jarnigan, Patty McIntyre, David Munck, Dianne Otto, and Mark Steinberg.

State debaters and speech contestants Carole Blair, Molly Plumb, Deb Roberts, Julie Gannon, Patty McIntyre and their coach Mrs. Sychra.

The 1972-73 J.H.S. debaters put a lot of hard work into debate this year and got success out of that work. With a small squad of one freshman, Julie Gannon; one sophomore, Molly Plumb; one junior, Marlys Rasmussen; and two seniors Carole Blair and Patty McIntyre, the team brought home big accomplishments in its second year.

Early in the season, the team placed fourth in 11 at Ames, third in 15 at Anita, and second in 15 at Anita. The girls won their first trophy at Anita with the second place win.

The thrill of the season came at the Iowa High School Speech Association's state championship meet at Dowling in February. There, competing against the top seven teams, the team got into the state championship by debating its way to the top of the teams entered. After debating on television for the top position the team ended up second and were ranked second in the state at the end of the season.

debaters rank no. 2

Of nine entries in district individual speech contest, seven went on to the state contest at Corning on March 17. Deb Roberts returned with a one in interpretive poetry at that contest. She also attended the Forensic League state finals in Iowa City in April. There she placed 6th in the state in oral interpretation, out of a field of 30 contestants.

j.c.i.c.

J.C.I.C. has been very busy this year. Last summer they sent two students to Europe. Mim Johnson went to Sweden and Jane Boley went to France. They both spent 10 weeks at their respective homes. Mim stayed at Lake Siljan, near Leksand for the month of July. In August, they returned to Linkoping, where her family lived during the school months. Jane's family lived in Paris, but had a summer home in Royan near Bordeaux, where they spent most of the summer. This year Johnston has a student from Argentina. His name is Juan Capelli. Juan will be with us from February to June.

library club

The Library Club is a service club that helps in the running of our school library. These students do not get paid for their services, but they do receive an award at the end of the year for a certain amount of hours each semester. They volunteer their free periods to do this work. Two members, Gala Friesen and Carla Lohner, have worked in the library for six years.

sae (fta)

The FTA has had quite a year, beginning with a name and image change. The new name, SAE, stands for Student Action for Education. The emphasis has shifted from teacher preparation to helping in many areas of education. Two students were elected to district offices, Mary Beth Matherly and Hope Davis.

health careers

The Health Careers Club toured several hospitals and other types of health facilities. The purpose of the club is to inform students interested in pursuing a career in a health-related field. Members have assisted Mrs. Angstrom with vision screening and various other projects.

Among the photo club's responsibilities, are taking photos of special events, sports activities, student affairs, as well as developing personal skills with the camera and dark room techniques. Have you seen a group of kids descending upon a house dressed in comfortable, old clothes? If not you have missed out on the action of the F.C.A. the Fellowship of Christian Athletes enjoy getting together and to have a lot of fun. They have had sledding parties, camp-outs, swimming parties, and they even contributed a float in the Homecoming parade. There are both boys and girls F.C.A. but the two groups enjoy doing things together. The lolly pops you see in Laura's and Bob's mouths is proof of how casual they are. If you enjoy having fun with a big group just join F.C.A.

You've heard of people communicating by writing letters, but how about sending coded messages by radio to other students in California or New York. This is what the members of the radio club attempt to do every 7th hour. In order for it to be possible to send these messages, the student must have a license. To get this license the members of the club must pass a coded test and a written exam. The eight members of the club are led by Mr. Rittgers.

annual staff gets fired up

This year the annual staff had a new advisor--our organized little French teacher, Mrs. Newlin. She had previously been advisor for the annual at another school and came to us equipped with many new and interesting ideas. Evidence of this is that we sold many more annuals and ads than any year previously. If you ever wanted to see how the annual is put together you should have come to the French room every 7th hour and seen the annual staff members at work under the direction of Mrs. Newlin and editor Patty McIntyre. It took many hours of work, but here it is. We hope you like it!

cheerleaders promote spirit

The cheerleaders this year were picked for their ability to cheer, personality and attitude. The lettermen and the cheerleaders from the previous year were the ones to pick who they thought would be the best to support the various teams. All the cheerleaders worked hard this year to bring more spirit to Johnston. They spent many long hours after school but all their work was worth it for they had a very rewarding year. One of the major accomplishments of the Football cheerleaders was they took at least 2 buses to every away game. The Wrestling cheerleaders bought new sweaters to go along with their purple and white skirts. The Basketball cheerleaders promoted alot of spirit for our winning basketball season.

The Pep Club officers, this year, were: President, Jill Mable; Vice President, Lorrie Ward; and Treasurer, Dawn Groff. The Pep Club was very active this year. They put on skits at pep assemblies, made spirit signs, gave a spirit breakfast for the football team, put on a spirit supper for the basketball boys, girls, and the wrestlers. To make money they sold Johnston Buttons, Football Jerseys and Victory Bells. They, also, devised a point system. They made these points by supporting the teams at games and by promoting the spirit at school.

In past years a hat or pen was used to represent that you were in Pep Club, but this year a purple knit vest was bought as our uniform. They were worn on days of games or at meets. The Pep Club also tried to sit in one big group at the games and meets. By doing this, there was much more spirit.

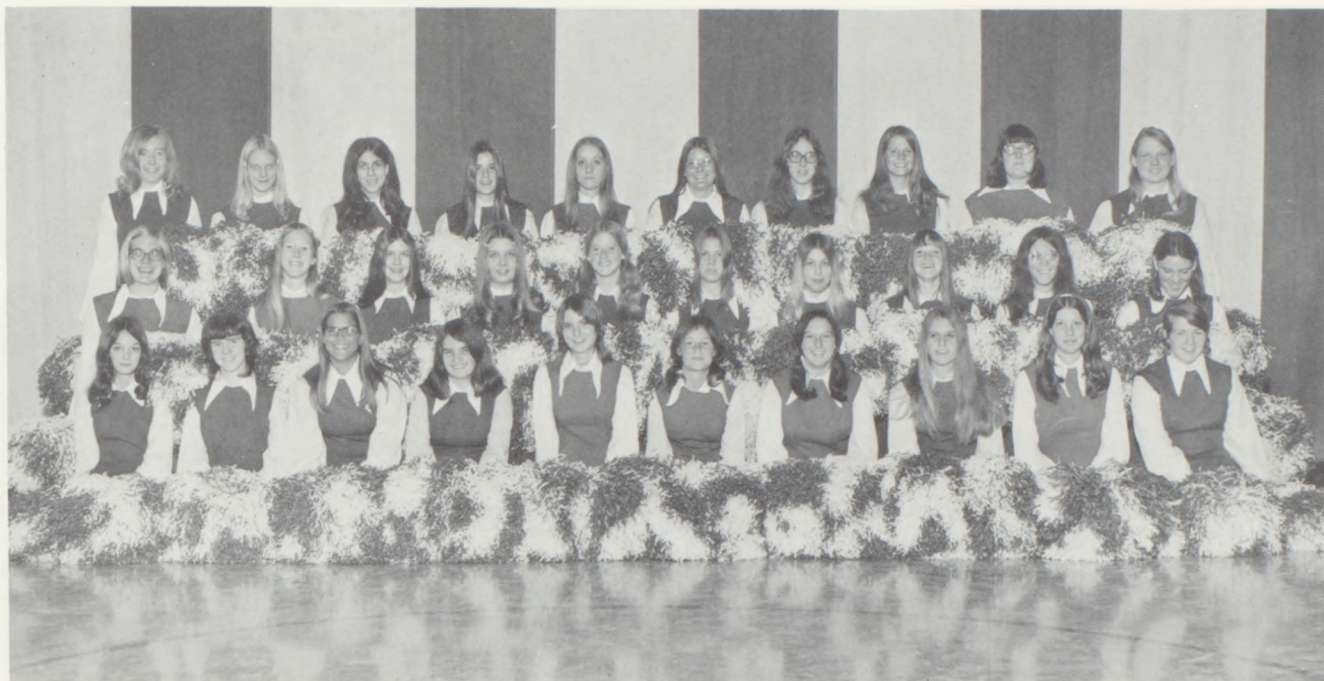

band gains new director

"FREEZE!" "OVER, OUT, UP!" and "PICK those Feet Up!" These are a few of the remarks heard at marching band practice. The band was directed by Mr. Brion Wenhardt. The marching band performed at all the home football games and at Pella and Drake. Mr. Wenhardt made plans for his concert band to go to South Dakota after school was out in the spring. Concert band performed at winter and spring concerts. This may have been Mr. Wenhardt's first year at directing a band, but we all think he did an excellent job.

pella highlight's drill team's season

Short purple skirts, shiney, white patent leather boots, and a lot of practice are all a part of the J. H. S. drill team. This year the 30 girls in the drill team were headed by the new band director, Mr. Wenhardt, with the co-captains being Janet Glass and Nancy Gilbert.

The drill team marched at all the home football games and at the Pella Tulip Festival parade. The drill team worked hard to get ready for the games and the parade, and their performance proved their efforts were worth while.

chorus keeps busy with concerts

The Johnston Senior High Chorus consisted of 41 members this year, and Mrs. Iona Ansoerge had the sole responsibility for having them ready by the time a concert was due on the schedule. The choir was particularly busy this year around Christmas time getting ready for their annual Christmas concert. The choir could also be seen and heard at the musical and spring concert. Members for next year's chorus will be chosen during the first week of school in the fall of 1973. Mrs. "A", we are sure, is proud of all the work and effort this year's chorus put into their concerts.

"No One's Perfect"

This year the J.H.S. Senior Chorus sparked a new light on the area of musicals by presenting an original production written by Mr. Jim Ansorge, the choir director's husband, entitled, "No One's Perfect." The setting being in Indian surroundings, the fantasia represented the historical story of Johnston High School up to and including the present with the new school. Leading the cast were Running Bull played by Jeff Sheeks, Bull Running, by Jeff Neff, and Slow foot played by Danny Evans.

The activities banquet was held in the new clubhouse at Hyperion this year. The banquet was a success, with the whole clubhouse crowded with parents and students.

Awards were given out to students who excelled in their activity, or those who had been with their organization for two years or more. To speed things up, the pins and letters were not given out at the banquet. As it was, it was still quite long because of the number of students J. H. S. had to honor.

The banquet was a big success and we hope to have many more in the new clubhouse.

Mr. Ron Mitts smiles proudly at the camera as he stands with his cross-country team.

election results: clarkson as new s.c. president

May 1st marked the beginning of the week when juniors were able to take out nomination papers for Student Council President. Ronnie Clarkson and Lorrie Ward took out papers. Each Nominee had to have sixty names signed on his paper. After this requirement, both had to be endorsed by the student council. Campaign week was very hectic for both candidates. Posters, signs and speeches had to be made. On May 14, Student Council President elections were held. Ron Clarkson was voted as S. C. P. for 1973-74. On May 18 Ron Clarkson was sworn into office by this year's president Tom Evans.

The Junior-Senior prom this year was a great success at the Ankeny Country Club. More people attended this year's prom than have been at any previous one for many years.

The Junior class made the prom the success it was by agreeing to have it be semi-formal and more of a banquet than a formal prom. Invitations were given to all the seniors, and almost everyone of them came.

The theme for the prom was "Traces of Memories" and the colors chosen were baby blue and pink. The prom has been described as being "terrific", and we hope to see many more successful proms in the future.

Present at the ceremonies were the 10th graders--the class which will be the first to graduate from the new school, and the 7th graders--the class which will take all of their high school work in the new building.

smiling faces prevail at ground-breaking

Jason Beck, school board president breaks the ground for the new high school.

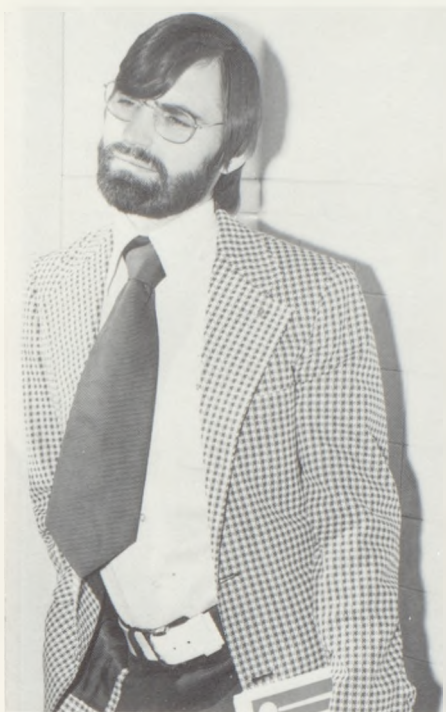

Mr. Otto prepares to take his turn at ground-breaking, and asks the photographer, "Do you dig it?"

Mr. Donald Lang, guidance counselor, smiles as his secretaries, Linda Herrick, Diana Martin and Drenna Woods surrounded him.

Listening attentively, Mr. Lang, decides how he will help a student with a problem.

Principal, Robert Otto, takes time out from his busy day of seeing that the school runs smoothly.

On the third floor of JHS is a busy area, the offices of the principal and guidance counselor. From 8 am on any school day, students rush in and out of the offices for passes, excuses, admit slips and discipline. They ask innocently, "Why does Mr. Otto want to see me?" Or they bombard principal's Mrs. Lea Yepsen's desk with questions like, "Got a dime?" What can I do about that pop machine that took my money?" "Where's Mr. Otto?" "May I have a pass?" Mr. Donald Lang, guidance counselor, discusses class schedules, class problems, and behavior problems with students and teachers. His door is always open to those who need someone to talk to.

Mrs. Angstrom

Among Mrs. Angstrom's many tasks is checking eyes, giving advice to students who don't feel well, and running the Health Club. She does all these things much more efficiently than many people could, and J. H. S. is lucky to have a school nurse like her.

Mrs. Ansorge

The sound of guitars strumming and students humming is not uncommon in Mrs. Iona Ansorge's room. Mrs. Ansorge has a full schedule with her high school chorus and concert choir, Jr. High chorus and music classes, plus coaching the tennis team. As Mrs. "A" sometimes says, she is more at home in her office than her house.

Mrs. Babcock

This year Mrs. Babcock was the new advisor for S. A. E. (formerly F. T. A.) She has also had a 7th grade exploratory class plus her 4 sophomore English classes. When she's not busy with all that, she's busy with one of her hobbies such as macrame or other crafts.

Mr. Briggs

Mr. Dennis Briggs may look like one of the students of J. H. S. , but he really isn't. He teaches freshman earth science, is the advisor of the Rocket Club and coaches Jr. High wrestling. During the summer he is busy with Driver's Education. Even though Mr. Briggs is involved in many activities, he always has time for a smile, a joke, or a game with the students.

Mrs. Buckmaster

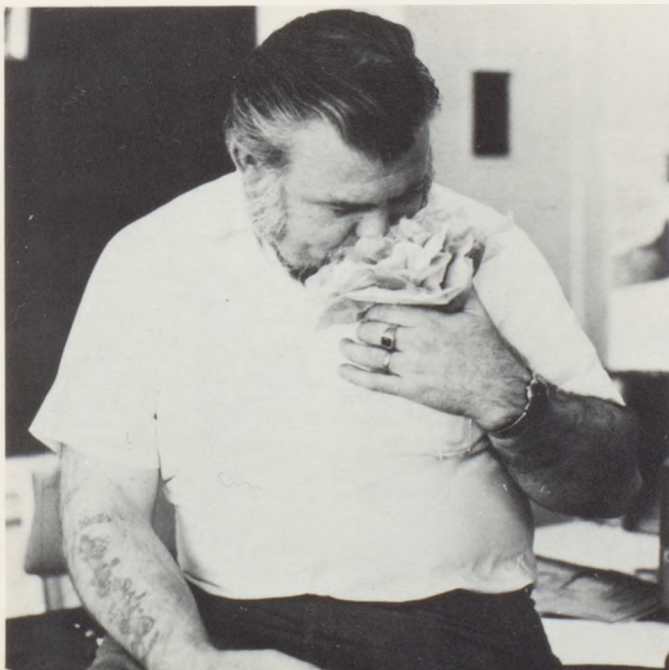

For those of you who don't recognize this name, this English teacher used to be Mrs. Tomlinson. Mrs. Virginia Buckmaster gives the freshmen all the grammar they could possibly want, besides being the head of National Honor Society. Mrs. Buckmaster is always ready for a laugh, but she is especially ready to show anyone who asks pictures of her two little grandsons!

Mr. Busby

Mr. Busby was a new teacher at J. H. S. this year, but the school wasn't new to him because he was once a student at Johnston. Mr. Gary Busby teaches the eighth grade life science classes and he also teaches the high school general science class. This may be Mr. Busby's first year of teaching, but he seems to fit right into the school life at Johnston.

2.

Mrs. Doolittle

This year Mrs. Doolittle teaches Individualized Reading, Advanced Composition, and a new course, Themes and Writers. She still has the ability to catch a gum chewer clear across the room, and to make up new words.

Miss Fowler

"Keep your eyes on your book!" is just one of the expressions Miss Fowler says everyday in her typing classes. Besides teaching 8th grade exploratory typing, she teaches Typing I and Typing II, she teaches shorthand, and Office Practice. Miss Fowler has had many years of experience teaching secretarial courses, and when her students get through her course they know something.

Mr. Gross

This year Mr. Gross taught Algebra I and II, Topical Math, and Math Survey. Along with these classes, he also coached girls' varsity basketball, girls' track, and girls' cross country.

4.

Mr. Harswick

The World History and Economic classes are taught by Mr. Harswick. Making a booklet on World War I and playing a game of running a country were only a few memorable assignments in his history classes. Everyone always looked forward to another exciting class in both Economics and World History.

Mrs. Keeton

This year Mrs. Keeton has again organized a club of high school students to help her in the library. She keeps current magazines and newspapers out for J. H. S. students to read. Since Mrs. Keeton keeps the library quiet, it is a good place to study.

Mr. Lancaster

Mr. Lancaster's subjects, to most people are very challenging. He keeps everyone's mind working. His subjects are Algebra II, Trigonometry and Geometry. He has contributed much in the way of teaching math at J. H. S. over the many years he has taught here.

mrs. keeton retires

After thirty years of teaching experience, twenty-four of which were at Johnston, Mrs. Katherine Keeton is retiring. Besides being a librarian, she has taught English 9-12, sociology, and library skills. Mrs. Keeton belongs to many clubs and has been recognized in several different books including "Who's Who in America". Even with a full schedule she still finds time for her favorite hobbies which include writing children's stories and working crossword puzzles. Mrs. Keeton has given much of her life to the Johnston Schools, and for this the students, faculty and staff, say, "Thank you, Mrs. Keeton".

Mrs. Luttinen

Volleyball, gymnastics, tennis and bowling are only a few of the many activities which girls in the physical education classes participated in this year. Mrs. Luttinen, ending her third year here, has offered a very broad course of activities for all the girls.

Mrs. Luttinen also assists the cheerleaders, is the advisor for the Pep Club and also is advisor for J.C. I. C.

Mr. Jim Mahoney

Mr. Mahoney keeps his classes busy with experiments, lectures and his "fun tests".

Mr. Ron Mitts

Mr. Ron Mitts offers an American History class which would please anyone. He offers a very wide range of activities from panel discussions to skits.

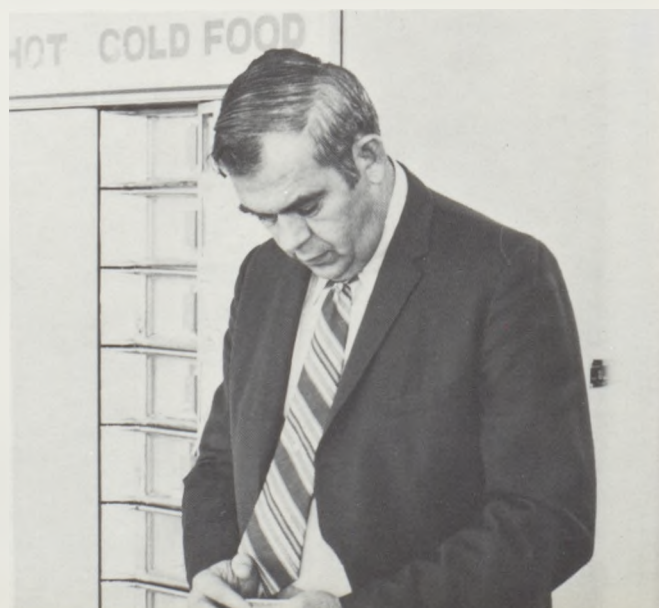

Mr. Mitts is also the head boys' cross-country coach, basketball coach and boys' golf coach. He is a very involved teacher and takes much interest in his classes.

Mrs. Newlin

Mrs. Newlin is new this year at Johnston. She has a busy schedule teaching two classes of first year French and one class each of second, third and fourth year French. She is a young and energetic teacher with many new and exciting ideas.

She is also the annual advisor every seventh period. Mrs. Newlin had many new ideas for the annual, also.

Mr. Noah

Mr. Noah teaches a number of art classes each day. The art department offers many different forms of expression. A student can create what he feels in painting, sketching, sculpting, pottery or a number of other media.

Mr. Noah also sponsors the Photo Club. This year he and the Photo Club have been very helpful with the photography sections of this yearbook.

Mr. Oldham

Mr. Oldham is another new teacher at Johnston this year. He is kept busy by teaching Business Law, Business Management, Business Math, Book-keeping, General Business, Careers and Typing 1.

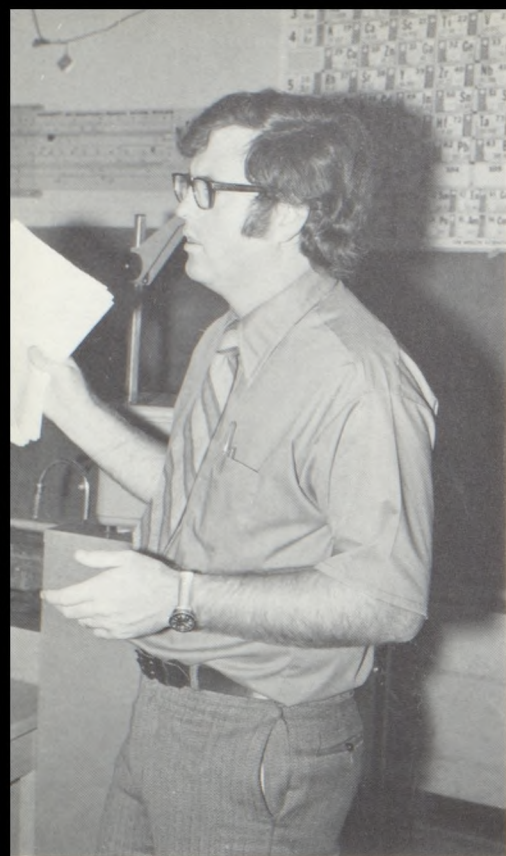

Mr. Oldham also coaches Jr. High Boys' Basketball who achieved a very successful record this year.

Mr. Mike Partington

Ending his second year at J. H. S. began the year by adding another course to his schedule, that being chemistry. Along with this course he also taught Physics and four Jr. High Science courses which made up for busy, active days every day.

He also coached Jr. High girls basketball who concluded the season with a pleasing record.

Mr. Pitz

This year Mr. Pitz burst out in full bloom with a mustache.

Mr. Pitz teaches American Government, Sociology and Psychology. These classes included trips to the capitol and to the mental institution at Woodward. A former drug addict was invited to speak to the class and later to the student body.

Mrs. Purdum

Sewing, cooking, and learning methods of caring for a family are all a part of Mrs. Judy Purdum's Home Economics classes. The home economics classes are well-liked by the girls and many take Mrs. Purdum's classes. It is a common sight to see Mrs. Purdum coming down a hall with a cup of coffee in one hand and a scrap of material in the other.

Mr. Schuler

One of the boys' favorite elective courses at J. H. S. is the woodworking class, taught by Mr. Harold Schuler. He has the Mechanical Drawing, Industrial Arts, and Practical Arts classes. If any boy is interested in woodworking or cars these "wood" be the classes to take.

Mr. Strickler

Basketball, gymnastics, and wrestling are all a part of the boys' gym class, taught by Mr. Larry Strickler. Mr. Strickler keeps the boys busy with many other activities. He also coaches the JV girls basketball team and is assistant coach for girls varsity basketball.

Mrs. Sychra

Mrs. Sychra was carrying a full load this year with her American Literature classes and journalism classes. She was also the debate and speech coach. This year her debate team was state ranked throughout the season, and was state runnerup. The speech students took many high rankings, and many of them advanced to state competition.

a few quite necessary people

Some of the unseen workers in our schools are the custodians. They work very hard to keep our school clean. The bus drivers transport all the students to school in all kinds of weather.

Two of the most welcomed faces at noon at school are the faces of our cooks. They provide many good nourishing meals for many of the hungry students.

Mr. Partington had nothing but praise for his basketball teams. He worked with a great bunch of young ladies in both seventh and eighth grade. The seventh grade was a very young team, both in size and action and hopefully they will do better in the on coming year. The eighth grade team had a lot of talent and it was a very hard choice for Mr. Partington to make, picking out the six players to start each game. There should be a very good basketball team when these girls get in to high school.

The eighth grade losses were to Urbandale twice, Martinsdale once, and Woodside once. The seventh grade fell only to Martinsdale and Urbandale to complete their record.

Led by the strong coaching of Mr. Oldham, the junior high teams led a very strong attack and showed great signs of being as rough or rougher next season. The eighth grade team promises to be a very strong addition to our high school squad.

The Johnston Junior High wrestlers enjoyed a very successful year winning 7 meets and losing 1. 35 boys reported for wrestling at the beginning of the year and 31 finished when the season ended.

The largest victory in two years was achieved over Bondurant, with a final score of 94-12.

The only loss for the Dragons came on January 13 when they took a 35-29 defeat at the hands of Carlisle. But, we achieved our revenge on February 3rd, when we repaid Carlisle with a 35-31 victory.

Mr. Dennis Briggs and the Junior High Wrestlers, after achieving a terrific season this year, anticipate the same success next year.

YOUNKERS

YOUNKERS Satisfaction Always

As part of Youngkers firm belief in the young people of today, a program is offered each year for the Des Moines area schools . . . TEEN BOARD for junior and senior girls, and ADVISORY BOARD for junior and senior boys. These young people, selected to represent their schools, are chosen for leadership qualities, high scholastic standings, personal recommendations from school administrators and evaluation from members of the retiring boards, plus their interest and ability in retailing and fashion. They give talks in their schools and to other groups on good grooming, publish a monthly newsletter and work in various junior departments each Saturday. Youngkers salutes the representatives from Johnston High School for a job very well done.

The next two years... important, aren't they?

After your high school years, the next two are mighty important—the transition years, the formative years, the maturing years.

At Grand View we know the importance of your next two years—that's why we offer personalized attention in small classes, excellent academic and residential facilities, an outstanding faculty, reasonable tuition, and plenty of extra-curricular activities. And what's more, we have a very special inter-institutional Three-Year Program that you might be interested in.

Grand View is a fully-accredited, private, two-year co-educational liberal arts college of the Lutheran Church in America, founded in 1896, and located in Des Moines, Iowa's friendly capital city with a population of 220,000.

But, that's only a beginning. May we tell you more? Just write or call:
